The Global Alliance for Partnerships on Media and Information Literacy (GAPMIL) is a groundbreaking effort to promote international cooperation to ensure that all citizens have access to media and information competencies with over 400 member organizations and individuals. GAPMIL seeks to globally reposition MIL around the core objectives of:

- Articulating key strategic partnerships to drive MIL development globally;
- Enabling the MIL community to speak and address, with a unified voice, certain critical matters, including the need for policies;
- Further deepening the strategy for MIL to be treated as a composite concept by providing a common platform for MIL related networks and associations globally that will ensure convergence of regional and international initiative and amplification of global impact.

UNESCO/UNAOC - First International Forum on Media and Information Literacy (June 2011, Fez, Morocco) which has launched the first International University Network on Media and Information Literacy and Intercultural Dialogue (UNESCO/UNAOC-MILID).

UNESCO/UNAOC - First International Forum on Media and Information Literacy (June 2011, Fez, Morocco) which has launched the first International University Network on Media and Information Literacy and Intercultural Dialogue (UNESCO/UNAOC-MILID).
Cultivation of a media- and information literate population is essential for the sustainable development of any society.

The Global Alliance for Partnerships on Media and Information Literacy was established through a call for interest, which was distributed to stakeholder groups globally. This pioneering initiative was launched during the Global Forum for Partnerships on Media and Information Literacy (GFPMIL) which took place from 26 to 28 June 2013 in Abuja, Nigeria.

Drawing upon over 40 years of UNESCO’s experience in MIL, it has become absolutely essential to establish more enduring partnerships that are necessary to amplify the impact of MIL. To this end, GAPMIL as a global alliance for partnership on MIL is a joint initiative of UNESCO and other key stakeholders.

If you are

An organization (private, public or non-governmental), or an individual working in the field of media, information, technology, journalism, librarianship, communication and education, whether online or offline...

Join the Global Alliance!

www.unesco.org/new/en/gapmil